Florida Farm Bureau's Youth Speech Contest

Rules and Information

2023 Topic

“How have supply chain issues impacted Florida agriculture?”

Rules and Information

Background Information

Each year, the Florida Farm Bureau Federation's Women's Leadership Program sponsors a statewide Youth Speech Contest. The contest has three levels of competition: County, District and State. The winner of the County contest competes in their District contest and the District winner then competes in the State competition against the other seven District winners. The State contest will be held virtual, prior to the Florida Farm Bureau Annual Meeting.

The purpose of this contest is to promote a stronger interest and clearer understanding of the many aspects of agriculture; to provide opportunities for our youth to gain knowledge, appreciation, and understanding of agriculture; and help to promote agriculture's many values and virtues.

Qualifications

The Florida Farm Bureau Federation's Youth Speech Contest is open to any student who is at least 14 years of age, and not over 18 years of age as of September 8, 2023 (not having reached their 19th birthday). Students must be a resident in the County of the sponsoring County Farm Bureau.

Membership in the County Farm Bureau is not a requirement, however, it is encouraged. Contestants must display a positive attitude about agriculture and speech content must be in line with Farm Bureau policies, which can be accessed on our website at Florida Farm Bureau Federation Policy Book.

Contest Format

Each County Farm Bureau is encouraged to conduct a contest for interested students, which should be held during the school year. Please consult with Florida Farm Bureau Field Staff to arrange your County and District contest. Early promotion of the contest in area schools allows some students to use the project in their regular school programs (4-H, FFA, English, etc.). County Farm Bureaus are encouraged to promote the contest through their County newsletters, school boards, social media and local newspapers.

District competitions will be the next step in the event. Members of the State Women's Leadership Committee, along with the help of Florida Farm Bureau's District Field Representatives, will be responsible for holding these contests. Contests must be held prior to September 8, 2023. The Florida Farm Bureau Federation must receive the name of each District winner, their application and a copy of their speech by 4:30pm on September 8, 2023, or the student will be ineligible for State competition. Once the speech has been submitted to the state office, no changes can be made.

The District winners will then compete for the State award during Florida Farm Bureau Federation's Annual Meeting on October 25, 2023. The student must be present at the State contest in order to compete. If the District winner is not available to compete, Districts may substitute the second place District winner. If this occurs, the first place District winner will forfeit their title. All applicant information for each District winner must be submitted to the Florida Farm Bureau Federation by September 8, 2023. Travel and lodging expenses to the State contest are the responsibility of the contestant and/or the County Farm Bureau that they represent.
